Forever Ends on Friday by Justin A. Reynolds
Pan Macmillan UK

Jamal's best friend, Q, doesn't know he's about to die... again. He also doesn't know that Jamal tried to save his life, rescuing him from drowning only to watch Q die later in the hospital. Even more complicated, Jamal and Q haven't been best friends in two years—not since Jamal's parents died in a car accident, leaving him and his sister to carry on without them.

Wink by Rob Harrell
HarperCollins

Twelve-year-old Ross Maloy just wants to be normal. Not to have a rare eye cancer, not to lose his hair, not to have to wear a weird hat or have a goopy eye full of ointment. Just normal. But with a sudden and horrifying diagnosis, Ross can't help standing out.

On the Come Up by Angie Thomas
Walker Books

Sixteen-year-old Bri wants to be one of the greatest rappers of all time. Or at least make it out of her neighborhood one day. As the daughter of an underground rap legend who died before he hit big, Bri's got big shoes to fill.

Can't Say it Went to Plan by Gabrielle Tozer (Audiobook)
Bolinda Publishing Pty Ltd

For the next seven days, the only homework is partying with friends, making new ones and living in the moment. There are no parents or curfews — and no rules. Zoe, Samira and Dahlia are strangers, but they have something in common: their plans for a dream holiday after their final year of school are flipped upside-down before they even arrive at the beach.

The Art of Being Normal by Lisa Williamson (Audiobook)
Bolinda Publishing Pty Ltd

Two boys. Two secrets. David Piper has always been an outsider. His parents think he's gay. The school bully thinks he's a freak. Only his two best friends know the real truth — David wants to be a girl. On the first day at his new school Leo Denton has one goal — to be invisible. Attracting the attention of the most beautiful girl in year eleven is definitely not part of that plan.

The End of the World Is Bigger than Love by Davina Bell (Audiobook)
Bolinda Publishing Pty Ltd

Identical twin sisters Summer and Winter live alone on a remote island, sheltered from a destroyed world. They survive on rations stockpiled by their father and spend their days deep in their mother's collection of classic literature — until a mysterious stranger upends their carefully constructed reality.

It's a Whole Spiel by Katherine Locke & Laura Silverman

Muhammad Ali, born Cassius Marcellus Clay Jr., was known for his battles in the ring as well as his achievements outside of it. An outspoken activist, he joined the Nation of Islam and followed Malcolm X during the Civil Rights Movement. He refused to fight in the Vietnam War for a cause he did not believe in, even though some saw him as a coward.

Ancient Greece and the Olympics* by Mary Pope Osborne & Natalie Pope Boyce
Random House Children's Books

What did the ancient Greeks wear? What did they do for fun? Where were the very first Olympics held? How are our modern Olympics similar to the ancient Olympics? Find out the answers to these questions and more as Jack and Annie track the facts.

The World Cup: Soccer's Global Championship* by Matt Doeden
Lerner Publishing Group

In 1930 the first soccer World Cup began in Uruguay with little fanfare. With world economies in the grip of the Great Depression, only thirteen teams competed. In 2018 teams from thirty-two nations will do battle in the World Cup tournament, and it promises to be the biggest event in sports history.

The background of the entire page is a light beige color. It is decorated with several stylized books in various colors (teal, red, maroon, orange) and orientations. Some books are closed, while others are open, showing lined pages. Scattered throughout the background are small, solid-colored circles in teal and maroon. At the bottom of the page, there is a light blue wavy banner that contains the text for the sign-up section.
